

Congratulations! You passed!

Next Item

1 / 1 point

1. Which revision control system requires a user to lock a file when it is checked out, so that other developers cannot work on it easily at the same time?

- ☐ git
- ☐ CVS
- ☐ Subversion
- ☒ RCS

Correct

RCS requires a lock

1 / 1 point

2. Which revision control systems have a central repository which may be on a network server (Select all answers that apply):

- ☒ Subversion

Correct

There is a central authoritative repository

- ☐ git

Un-selected is correct

- ☒ CVS

Correct

There is a central authoritative repository

- ☐ RCS

Un-selected is correct

0 / 1 point

3. When using git:

- ☒ Conflicts between different developers become impossible

This should not be selected

Conflicts still happen

- ☐ Conflicts between different developers require manual examination and fixing by a maintainer
- ☐ Artificial intelligence and automated testing servers determine which of conflicting change sets should be used
- ☐ Everyone is equal, there is no overall responsible figure

1 / 1 point

4. Select the true statement:

- ☐ It is impossible to convert Git repositories for use by Subversion and CVS
- ☒ It is possible to convert Git repositories for use by Subversion and CVS

Correct

This can be done

1 / 1 point

5. Select the true statement:

- ☐ It is impossible to import (convert) CVS and Subversion repositories into Git
- ☒ It is possible to import (convert) CVS and Subversion repositories into Git

Correct

We have exercises on this