

Try again once you are ready.

Required to pass: 80% or higher

You can retake this quiz up to 3 times every 8 hours.

Back to Week 2

Retake

1. Which statement is correct?

1 / 1 point

In Linux, file types are rarely determined by extension letters

Correct

Almost always the type is determined by examination

In Linux, file types are never determined by extension letters

In Linux, file types are always determined by extension letters

2. If the first character in the long file listing is a "-", the listed object is a:

1 / 1 point

Symbolic (Soft) Link

Normal File

Correct

This is a dash

Named Pipe (FIFO)

Directory

Block Device Node

Character Device Node

Unix Domain Socket

3. If the first character in the long file listing is an "s", the listed object is a:

0 / 1 point

Unix Domain Socket

Symbolic (Soft) Link

setuid file

This should not be selected

This would be an "S"

Named Pipe (FIFO)

Character Device Node

Block Device Node

4. Which of the following commands are equivalent (Select all answers that apply):

1 / 1 point

chown donald file ; chgrp ducks file

Correct

This does it in two steps

chown 664 file

Un-selected is correct

chown donald:ducks file

Correct

You can use a . or a :

chown donald.ducks file

Correct

You can use a . or a :

5. Which command will give all users the right to look at a file, but give only the owner the right to change it or execute it:

0 / 1 point

chmod 744 some_file

chmod 764 some_file

chmod 644 some_file

This should not be selected

This is rw-r--r--

chmod 467 some_file

